XYLEXPO 2024: READY FOR “INDUSTRY 5.0”

With just a bit more than one month left before the ribbon cutting, it's all set and Xylexpo will be once again a reference event in the global trade fair landscape: more than 260 exhibitors, 33 percent from abroad, will cover 25 thousand square meters of exhibition area, in Halls 1 and 3 at FieraMilano Rho (East or “Metropolitana” gate).

From 21 to 24 May, the event will present the state-of-the-art of the international offer of wood and furniture technology. “It will be a valuable opportunity – said Dario Corbetta, exhibition director – in view of the recent measures for “Industry 5.0”. Italian companies will benefit from fiscal incentives up to 45 percent of their investments, provided they comply with specific features in terms of digital transformatio, but most of all – that’s the news – sustainability”. An attracting opportunity for all Italian exhibitors and visitors in an Italian market that is worth more than one billion euro.

Xylexpo will be a big date for exhibitors, who can show how their technology is in line with the current sustainability requirements, and for visitors, who will have the opportunity to see the new technological levels that also woodworking machinery are required to achieve.
